Bletchley & Fenny Stratford. Reimagined

Masterplan Proposals

Thanks to the Towns Fund and Milton Keynes City Council, we have an opportunity to create a more healthy, attractive and thriving town centres in Bletchley and Fenny Stratford. These projects are designed to capitalise on the emerging opportunities presented by the development of the East-West Rail link, which connects to the Bletchley railway station.

These projects are designed to address the following themes:

- regeneration
- planning and land-use
- connectivity
- skills and enterprise.

Images are for illustrative purposes only

Saxon Street
To provide enhanced connectivity to and from the town centre.

Police and Fire Station
Redevelopment to provide new housing and retail opportunities next to the railway station.

Brunel Centre
Redevelopment of the Brunel Centre, Sainsbury's store and former Wilko unit for a new mixed-use development.

Queensway
Improvements to and transformation of the public realm on Central Bletchley's main commercial street.

Aylesbury Street
Improvements and transformation of the public realm on Fenny Stratford's main commercial street.

5 x Focus Areas

Central Bletchley is set to benefit from unrivalled connectivity and accessibility at the heart of the Oxford to Cambridge (East-West Rail). These projects will help create an attractive vibrant, prosperous and well-designed Central Bletchley to provide for new and existing residents, workers and visitors.

Saxon Street

Queensway

Police & Fire Station

Aerial Masterplan

The aerial masterplan outlines the programme of transformative work taking place across Central Bletchley and Fenny Stratford. It is designed to promote enhanced connectivity from East to West.

Aylesbury Street

Brunel Centre

https://gbftowndeal.commonplace.is/info@groundbreakingbletchleyandfenny.co.uk

We need your feedback

urban graphics experts in communication urban-graphics.co.uk

Bletchley & Fenny Stratford. Reimagined

Milton Keynes City Council

Funded by UK Government

GBF Groundbreaking Bletchley & Fenny

www.milton-keynes.gov.uk