Background Information:

The Historic Fishburn Mansion is one of the most unique recreation centers you will find. Formerly known as the Mountain View Recreation Center, Fishburn Mansion is a 42-room Georgian-revival mansion that was built in 1907 by Junius B. Fishburn. In 1955, he donated his home to the city, with the stipulation that it would be solely used for public recreation purposes. The rest of Fishburn's beautiful estate includes a garden, community garden and and multiple outbuildings, including a garage, garage apartment, greenhouse, two-story caretaker's cottage, and a chicken house/brick storage building.

The Fishburn Mansion is open to the public on Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The surrounding park grounds are open daily from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Access may be restricted during private rentals.
